NO CREMATION FOR CATHOLICS

So Says the Bishop of Panopolis Who Issues a Circular Letter to His Flock.

The Bishop of Panopolis, vicar apostolic to the Hawaiian Islands, and head of the Catholic Church here, has issued a circular letter against cremation which is found as an advertisement in another column. The Bishop says that the Church has decreed against this method of disposing of the dead and expresses the wish that the members of his see obey the Church's will in the matter. The following is the text of the Bishop's letter:

To the Clergy and Laity of the Catholic Church in Hawaii:

It is my duty as your Bishop, now that some people are working to substitute cremation, an old pagan rite, for the Christian rite of inhumation, to acquaint you with the rules adopted by the Church in regard to this matter.

On the 19th of May, 1886, a decree, approved by Pope Leo XIII, declares:

1st. A Catholic can not become a member of any society which imposes cremation. 2nd. No Catholic shall ask cremation for himself nor for anybody else.

On the 16th of December, 1886, another decree, approved by the same authority, declares that the ceremonies of the Church must be refused to any one not having retracted his request to be cremated; but the Church allows the ceremonies to be performed on the bodies, at home or in the church, of those who are to be cremated by orders issued by the Government or by some other authority.

These are the rules of our Church in regard to cremation and my wish is that every Catholic in this country should keep them as the Church has good reasons for imposing them on her children.

Yours faithfully,

GULSTAN,
Bishop of Panopolis.

Vicar Apostolic.
